

New Design for Library in Kings Park

KPCA letter of concern leads to a series of meetings and new design

New Kings Park Branch Library

After hearing our concerns with library design, a series of meetings are held between representatives of Smithtown Library, architect Roger Smith, Smithtown Planning Department and KPCA representatives to help create a more inspirational design for the centerpiece of our downtown area. New design was well received at following KPCA membership meeting.